Fulton Grange 66

Fulton Grange No. 66 met Feb. 24th with the Master, J. Everett Kreider, presiding.

The group made plans to hold their annual family-style roast turkey supper Saturday April 5th from 4 to 7:30 p.m. at the Grange Hall in Oakryn. Tickets will be $5 for adults and $2.50 for children 5 to 12. Children under the age of five can eat free. Take-outs will be available. Women's Activities committee members Linda Martin, Henrietta Wallace, AnnaBell Wiley and Dorothy Reath are planning the menu.

Four committee chairman Clifford Holloway Jr. reported the bus to the Tulip Festival in Holland, Mich., is full and the committee is taking only stand-by reservations. The trip will be May 13 through 18, inclusive. It will include seeing the tulip gardens, attending the street dance in Holland, visiting a wooden shoe factory, attending the Dutch Heritage pageant, having lunch at the gardens, taking a dune buggy ride, eating at Bob Evans Restaurant, visiting the Ford Museum and another museum and the Cathedral of Tomorrow, as well as some other places of interest enroute.

The Master appointed the following on a committee in charge of the annual Grange Week celebration locally: Charles McSparran, Debra Metzler and Virgil Van Natta. It will be observed by Granges all over the nation April 20 through 26. Fulton Grange will hold Open House April 28 when the public is invited. Fulton Grange will also host the spring meeting of Lancaster County Pomona Grange 71 Saturday, April 19th at 8 p.m.

There was some discussion on reorganizing a Junior Grange and the following were appointed to see if there is enough interest: Linda Martin, Debra Metzler and Margorie McCauley.

In other business a $25 donation was voted for the Pennsylvania State Grange Junior Grange Promotional Fund.

Lecturer Betty Wise presented a program which included several contests and quizzes. Mrs. Resa Workman was scheduled to speak on the Hospice program in Lancaster County, but due to the weather and bad driving conditions she was unable to attend.

Fred J. Fisher, Boy Scout Commissioner, will speak on scouting at the next meeting, March 10th.

The first four degrees will be conferred at the April 14th meeting.
