SHENANDOAH INCINERATORS - A SANITARY ALTERNATIVE FOR ON FARM DISPOSAL

To-Help Prevent the Spread of Disease

The sanitary way to get rid of animal carcasses is with a Shenandoah incinerator. It's pollution controlled and convenient to use. It's also efficient because extra we've lined the burning chambers, and in some models even the afterburning chambers, with one and a quarter inches of refractory cement. That keeps the heat up and the energy costs down.

Choose among eight easyto-install smoke and odor controlled models. You even have the option of burning gas or oil.

Ask your local Shenandoah dealer about efficient, inexpensive incinerators. You'll find out how our bright ideas in farm equipment can mean a bright spot in your day. And still leave a green spot in your wallet.

Eastern refinancing to save $350,000

SYRACUSE, NY - A $350,000 first-year savings is expected to result from a refinancing package announced today by Earl R. Forwood, President of Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative. The Syracuse-based dairy cooperative finalized negotiations with Barclays Bank PLC for a lending rate reduction of two percentage points at a closing held March 12 in New York City.

A 1982 $33 million financing package with General Electric Credit Corporation was replaced bv $23 million Barclays package, which allowed the cooperative to reduce its interest rate to 1/2 percentage point over the prime lending rate. The savings are expected to average $350,000 annually.

The financing covers the two cheese manufacturing facilities at Waverly and Horseheads, NY, purchased in 1982 by Eastern and leased to Leprino Foods Company of Denver, CO. Leprino, the nation's largest manufacturer of mozzarella cheese, markets its products throughout the country to such customers as Pizza Hut and the top 15 U.S. pizza chains. Michael H. Donovan, General Manager of Eastern Milk Producers, explained that the reduced need for borrowed capital is a direct result of Eastern's substantially increased internal equity and rapid payment of the original debt. "Eastern's record profits, as well as the superior quality of our customers, has enabled us to take advantage of this money-saving package," said Donovan. "Both our Board and management are proud of the cooperative's improved financial position. Arrangements such as these translate into greater member benefits through increased cooperative financial strength."
