

Scholarships Available to 4-H'ers, Former 4-H'ers

NEWARK, Del. — Cooperative Extension's national 4-H youth committee has established a college scholarship fund to recognize and further the education of worthy current or former 4-H members. Each scholarship is directly related to the National 4-H Awards Program, so outstanding achievement in this program is a prerequisite.

Qualified Delaware 4-H'ers and former 4-H'ers are eligible to compete for the following national scholarships.

- Two $1,000 4-H career scholarships sponsored by Who's Who Among American High School Students. Scholarships are available to incoming freshmen (fall '86) in any field of study at an accredited college or university. Applicants must show evidence of 4-H influence on their choice of a future career.

- One $1,000 agricultural scholarship sponsored by Alpha Gamma Rho. Candidates must be incoming freshman (fall '86) who plan to major in agriculture, forestry, veterinary medicine or a closely related field.

- Four $1,000 agricultural careers scholarships sponsored by DeKalb Ag Research, Inc. Available to high school seniors or college freshmen who plan to study farming, farm management, business and industry, research and industry, processing, marketing, advertising or conservation.

- Ten four-year $1,000 agricultural career awareness scholarships to land-grant institutions, sponsored by E.I. DuPont de Nemours and Company, Inc. Candidates must be high school seniors who are minority members of 4-H and have been accepted by a land-grant institution. They must intend to study agriculture or a closely related field in order to pursue an agriculturally related career.

- Three $1,000 animal science scholarships sponsored by the Continental Grain Company. Candidates must be juniors majoring in animal science at an accredited college or university.

- Three $1,000 dairy goat project scholarships sponsored by the American Dairy Goat Association. These scholarships are available to high school seniors or freshmen at an accredited college who plan to study agriculture, home economics or a closely related field. They must have participated in a 4-H dairy goat project for at least one year.

- One $1,000 food careers scholarship sponsored by Webster Industries, Inc. Candidates must be freshmen in college who have participated in 4-H food preservation, canning or freezing projects and who plan to major in food technology, food and nutrition, food service or a closely related field.

- One $3,000 fashion career scholarship sponsored by the Tobecoburn School for Fashion Careers. Candidates must have successfully completed 45 quarter or 30 semester hours at an accredited college or university and must be available to enroll at Tobecoburn within the year. They must be able to adapt to an urban environment, meet the balance of their financial expenses and submit a brief essay on "Why I Want a Career in the Fashion Industry." The recipient must intend to pursue studies in the fashion industry in order to prepare for a fashion-related career.

- Two $1,000 rabbit project scholarships sponsored by the American Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. Available to high school seniors or college freshmen who have completed one year of 4-H work on a rabbit project and who plan to study agriculture, home economics or a closely related field.

- Two $1,000 4-H veterinary medicine scholarships sponsored by Champion Valley Farms, Inc. Available to candidates now enrolled in one of the 28 U.S. colleges offering a veterinary medicine curriculum.

- Six $1,000 career scholarships sponsored by the Gertrude L. Warren Scholarship Fund. Applicants must be a college freshman who show evidence of 4-H influence on their future career choice and who are enrolled in any field of study in an accredited college or university.

Delaware youth wishing to apply for any of these scholarships may obtain further information and application forms from the county extension office in Newark (451-8965), Dover (737-1448) or Georgetown (856-7303) or from state 4-H leader Marcicus Butterfield (451-2509). Applications must be approved by him and submitted to the National 4-H Council by Oct. 1.

Lesa Kimball is Northwest Maple Queen

SPARTANSBURG — Lesa Kimball, Kimball Road, Wattsburg, was named the 1986 Northwest Maple Queen at the fifth annual contest May 3 at Dutch Treat Restaurant, Spartansburg.

Lesa is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burton J. Kimball, who have been involved in the production of maple syrup since 1977.

Lesa graduated from Seneca High School in June 1985. While in school she was a member of the Seneca Concert Band, a majorette in the marching band for four years and an honor student. At present she is working at Pizza Hut in Union City. In addition to being active in the family maple operation, her hobbies are knitting, sewing, needle point, latch hook, painting, softball and volleyball.

The two other candidates were Vickie Northrop, Corry, 17-year-old daughter of Dennis Northrop; and Rebecca K. Nichols, Spartansburg, 18-year-old daughter of Frank and Evelyn Nichols.

The judges were Judy Dengler, Saegertown, a registered nurse; Deanna Stahlman, Reno, the 1984 N.W. Maple Queen, and Lori Dengler, Saegertown, who works at Spectrum Control.

Cindy Larrison, Conneautville, the 1985 N.W. maple queen presented Lesa Kimball with the crowns.

The Maple Queen planning committee members are: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen, Corry; Mr. Dennis Northrop, Corry; Mr. and Mrs. John Deets, Titusville; and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dengler, Saegertown.

Bernard Tobin, Cambridge Springs, Pa., N.W. Maple Producers' Association president, was master of ceremonies for the evening program.
