Lancaster Society 5

Lancaster Society 5 met recently at the home of Edith Longenecker. Paul Zook, a Manheim ambulance driver, provided the safety program. He told the group what to have ready when medics arrive in order to save time.

The next meeting will be a picnic at the home of Betty Ruhl in Manheim. The society is planning a bus trip to the shore in August.

Lancaster Society 10

Members of Lancaster Society 10 met June 10 at the General Hospital for a day of sewing. Seven members made 64 new items.

Following the sewing, members went to the home of Kathy Scott in Conestoga. Lusy Miller was co-hostess.

The Society is planning a bus trip to Raystown Lake in October. President Nancy Starr announced that the county picnic will be held Aug. 5 at the Hoffman Building in Quarryville.

Members were also reminded of the state project, which can be anything made from Pennsylvania products. Projects will be judged in individual societies, then in the county and state.

A Conestoga Lawn Fair will be held Aug. 23. Food, plants, white elephants, but no clothing will be welcomed. Delivery is requested before noon.

Lancaster Society 11

Members of Lancaster Society 11 met June 26 for a picnic at Hufnagle Park in Quarryville with members of Society 8, county officers and one state board officer as guests. Several birthdays were recognized.

Lancaster Society 22

Tin punching was the topic of the June meeting of Lancaster Society 22. The group learned the craft from fellow society member Bonnie Rohrer. Members practiced the craft on pie plates which they took home.

Member Sally Bair talked about her experiences as a member of the board of the Hempfield School District. She pointed out that while the board members carry out local school policy, their authority actually comes from the state, which sets policy for education. She encouraged members to become informed about their own school districts.

several games for entertainment.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Dorothy Adsitt on July 31.

The Society presented a $500 educational scholarship to Mark Young, a 1986 graduate of Conestoga Valley High School, who will study at the Berks Campus of Penn State University. Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Young, 2463 Horseshoe Road, Lancaster.

In July, the Society will travel to the Three Little Bakers Dinner Theatre to celebrate its 35th anniversary as a society. Hostess for the meeting was Sherry Eshelman; co-hostess was Sally Bair. The August meeting will be held at the home of Elinor Rudy; it will be a food auction.

Lancaster Society 24

Lancaster Society 24 met June 17 at the Conestoga Church of the Brethren to entertain Society 21 and county officers.

Mrs. Ralph Good talked about goblets. Lois Erb led devotions. Vice president Carolyn Groff presided at the meeting.

Refreshments were served by the food committee.

The next meeting will be July 29 at the home of Mrs. Leo Snader, Leola.

Lancaster Society 26

Lancaster Society 26 celebrated its 20th anniversary June 22. Husbands joined society members for church services at Founders Hall and had brunch at Hotel Hershey.

The program was a reflection of the past 20 years by past presidents.

The next meeting will be Aug. 28 when the group will entertain society 23 at the Wenger Clinic at 6:30 p.m.

EXTRA STRENGTH.

Our B6200HST now comes with extra strength under the hood. The liquid-cooled, 3-cylinder diesel engine provides 15 horsepower.

At the same time, we've increased hydraulic capacity to make this hard working Kubota even better.

A hydrostatic transmission is also standard equipment for easy shifting from forward to reverse. And you have a choice of 2- or 4-wheel drive.

A 3-point hitch plus 2-speed live mid and rear PTO outlets give you the versatility to handle any kind of implement.

See all the strong points of the Kubota B6200HST soon.
