

385 • 485 • 585 • 685 • 885 TRACTORS!

Five basic power sizes and 21 different configurations enable you to match all kinds of job applications in the field, feedlot, orchard or vineyard.

Case IH 85 Series tractors have no boundaries in the numbers and types of jobs they can handle. They're tractors that can do small jobs economically in large operations, and yet can make quick work of the big jobs in smaller operations. Within the five-tractor line-up are twenty-one different configurations, including row-crop, utility, low-profile and Mechanical Front Drive (MFD) models. Which means you can have an 85 Series tractor practically tailored to your farming and cropping practices. For features, compare 85 Series tractors with others in their class. You'll see they offer you far more value for your money because they're equipped with operating features you don't normally expect to find in tractors in this horsepower class. These are operating features that go a long way in providing the highest level of productivity. Check them all out.
