1 box vanilla pudding or pie filling
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
2 large bananas
2½ cups milk
25 vanilla wafers

To prepare meringue: beat 2 egg whites and a dash of salt until foamy. Slowly add ¼ cup sugar; beat until stiff peaks form. Put onto pudding. Bake 5 to 10 minutes until light brown. Put more banana slices around edge just before serving.

Participating in last week's Mifflin County dairy princess pageant were, from left, Yvonne Pecht, second alternate; Susan Fisher, 1986 princess; the Mifflin County cow; Belinda Loht, 1987 princess; and Sherri Yoder, first alternate.

and Marie Loht, R2, McClure.
Belinda, who was crowned by 1986 Mifflin County Princess Susan Fisher, gave a presentation on the nutritional value of milk while dressed as a cow. She also successfully answered her spontaneous question on how she would handle a summer job plus the responsibilities of dairy princess.
Sherri Yoder, daughter of Jess and Joyce Yoder, Belleville, was named first alternate. While costumed as a barn cat, she explained to the real kitten she carried the importance of milk in the diet. A graduate of Belleville Mennonite High School, she is employed as a waitress at Valley View Haven.
Yvonne Pecht, daughter of Roland and Martha Pecht, R1, Milroy, was named second alternate. A 1987 graduate of Penn View Christian Academy, she plans to get a job and later pursue a career in interior decoration.

The new 1987 Dairy Princess, Belinda, who graduated this week from Chief Logan High School, hopes to become a medical assistant. She likes reading, riding her bike and being with friends. Her family works 250 acres and milks 50 head of cows with "Belinda helping whenever necessary," according to her father.
Mifflin County Dairy Promotion Council president J. Loren Yoder presented last year's princess, Susan Fisher, with a trophy. He complimented her on the exceptional enthusiasm and willingness she showed in promoting dairy products and the interest she had created in the role of dairy princess in a county that had not had a princess for several years.

In her farewell speech, Susan concluded that her year had been memorable for her because she "had been the spokesperson for some of the nicest people, dairy farmers."
Judges for the pageant were Clarence Cornman, Newville; Eleanor Isenberger, Alexandria; and Lois Zandt, Mifflintown. Wanda Yoder, chairman for the event, was assisted by Sandy King, Donna Snook and Mary Yoder.
