weekend, but little support came from that rumor. Spillover weakness from the live cattle pit pressured the feeders, but losses were somewhat limited by higher trending cash prices.

CME FEEDER CATTLE SETTLEMENT PRICE: 12/17/87 $75.35 up $ .12.

ACRES NEXT DAY OUT-LOOK: cash - steady futures - steady to weak

ACRES HOG UPDATE: Live hog futures settled slightly higher in sluggish pre-holiday trade. Support early in the session came from higher than expected opening cash prices with packers active in front of the holidays. Last week's moderate runs and Friday's better cut-out values provided further support. Bellies closed on the defensive with ideas that today's cold storage report would be bearish to futures.
