Jonathon Summy

President of the Manheim FFA chapter, Jonathon Summy has served terms as treasurer and sentinel. His projects include beef, swine, and tobacco, and he has shown animals at the Lancaster County Hog Show and Manheim Farm Show.

Jonathon, the 17-year-old son of John and Ruth Mary Summy of Manheim (Lancaster), belongs to his church's youth group and choir and the high school chorus. He enjoys collecting antiques and toy tractors. His plans for the future include owning and operating his own farm.

Ginger Ann Swartzlander

Ginger Swartzlander, 18, the daughter of Earl and Gladys Swartzlander of Winfield (Snyder), is the reporter for the Selinsgrove FFA chapter. She also is reporter for the SUN Area FFA organization.

Swine production and beef finishing are Ginger's projects. She is involved in scholarship, plant sales, FFA Supplies, point system, and banquet committees. She has received proficiency awards in floriculture and swine production as well as computer and record-book awards. Ginger also earned the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and SUN Area degrees.

Interested in outdoor activities, bicycle riding, and drawing, Ginger plans to make her career in agribusiness and work part-time in farming.

Jamie Sweet

The president of the Cowanesque FFA chapter, Jamie Sweet also has been sentinel, and he has worked on the BOAC and float committees.

Jamie, 17, is the son of Arden and Betty Sweet of Middlebury Center (Tioga). He has earned the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and County Farmer degrees and won the outdoor recreation award. He has competed in the state creed speaking, dairy judging, and salesmanship contests.

Interested in hunting, fishing, and trapping, Jamie is active in wrestling and student council. Upon graduation he plans to attend college and major in business management.

Steve Tedesco

The 18-year-old son of Emile and Sharon Tedesco of Columbia Cross Roads (Bradford), Steve has raised and shown market lambs and had an on-farm work experience project for four years. He has worked on the Program of Work and entertainment committees and served terms as secretary, student advisor, and sentinel.

Steve has earned the Greenhand and Chapter Farmer degrees. Following graduation he plans to establish a dairy farm after serving in the military.

Donald W. Tinder

Donald W. Tinder is sentinel of the Spud Growers FFA chapter. The son of Alvoid H. and Elizabeth B. Tinder, this 17-year-old has won public-speaking awards, been a delegate to the Summer Convention in 1986, and received the On-Farm Achievement award and Greenhand and Chapter Farmer degrees.

He is active in varsity wrestling, is a volunteer fire fighter, and is the vice president of his high school's senior class. His interests include motorcycle riding, hunting, fishing, and camping.

After high school Donald plans to pursue a career in agriculture.

Kevin Tuckey

Kevin Tuckey is the 18-year-old son of Clay C. and Wilma J. Tuckey of Biglerville (Adams). He has served as parliamentarian on the county level.

Kevin has chaired the seed-corn committee and co-chaired citrus committee. He competed in agricultural mechanics competitions on the state and national levels, placing fourth in the state and second in the nation.

He has received the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer and County Farmer degrees. He is interested in restoring old trucks and in four-wheeling and plans to attend a two-year trade school for diesel mechanics after high school.

Todd Vargeson

A four-year member of the Cowanesque FFA chapter, Todd Vargeson has earned the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and County Farmer degrees. He also was named Star Agribusinessman.

Todd is the 18-year-old son of Mary Ann and Paul D. Outman of Little Marsh (Tioga).

Todd enjoys snowmobiling, and motorcycle riding. After graduating he plans to go into dairy farming.

Jeff Wagner

A four-year member of the Manheim FFA chapter, Jeff Wagner is the 18-year-old son of John and Joyce Wagner of Manheim (Lancaster). He is serving his second term as chapter vice president and has been chapter secretary.

Jeff has had swine-production projects for the past four years and has shown pigs at the FFA Roundup and local farms. He has earned the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and Red Rose degrees.

Interested in hunting, fishing, and backpacking, Jeff plans to attend college and earn a business degree. After that he will work for his father.

Jeff Weaver

Jeff Weaver, son of Linda and Albert Weaver, Oxford, (Chester) is active in the FFA chapter at Oxford High School. The 18-year-old FFA projects include work experience on a dairy farm. He's been on committees for donkey basketball, entertainment and chaired the chapter banquet.
