

All Roads Lead To Farm Show

nel to preserve law and order in and around the Farm Show Complex. Captain William Hunter, commanding officer of Troop H, offered a few suggestions to make the trip more pleasant and urged visitors to be patient with the crowds, traffic patterns and congestion.

Visitors should make sure their vehicles are in good working order to avoid problems like dead batteries and breakdowns. Be sure to note a fixed landmark before leaving your parked car. Hunter also suggested that necessary safety precautions be taken for inclement weather such as winter tires and warm clothing. The State Police have a booth in the main exhibit hall of the complex, which includes a "lost parents" division in case of a family separation.

Parking is available for $2 per vehicle in the Farm Show's 60-acre facility. Parking areas for the handicapped with identification are located beside the large arena along Cameron Street and in the west front circle along Maclay Street.

An additional 1,500 parking spaces are available at the Harrisburg Area Community College, with shuttle bus service provided by the Capital Area Transit. CAT will charge 60 cents per passenger each way between the HACC lot and the west front circle of the Farm Show Building. One child under five years of age may ride free when accompanied by an adult. The shuttle will run from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Sunday, from 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

CAT will also provide bus service from City Island to the west front circle. Departures from the island are scheduled for 8:15 a.m., 8:35 a.m., 10:25 a.m., 11:25 a.m., 12:25 p.m., 1:25 p.m., 2:25 p.m., 3:25 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. They will return visitors to the island, leaving the complex every hour on the hour between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

As part of the Commonwealth's Free Transit Program for Senior Citizens, people over 65 can ride the HACC shuttle bus or the City Island bus free with proof of age during non-peak hours. Non-peak hours are Sunday, weekdays from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and weekdays after 6:30 p.m.

School buses and chartered buses will discharge their passengers and provide them with information on reloading points. These buses will be parked off-site at the Harrisburg State Hospital or the Armory, and the drivers will be shuttled to the complex.

Information on traffic situations will be reported throughout the week on 16 area radio stations by Brian Freeman's Traffax Traffic Network. Updates on traffic problems or alternate routes, as well as road conditions in case of bad weather, are also obtainable by calling his traffic telephone at 717-761-2233.

So whatever route you take, just be sure to come and enjoy yourself at the 72nd Pennsylvania Farm Show! There are plenty of things for everyone in your family to do and see. But best of all, it's free!

Lan-Chester Pork Day

The Lan-Chester Pork Day Program, to be held Tuesday, January 26, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Farm and Home Center, Lancaster is open to everyone. No reservations are necessary.

Along with the education program topics, participants will have the opportunity to visit with commercial exhibitors, agricultural businessmen, fellow pork producers and friends.

The morning program begins with registration at 8:30 a.m. Coffee and donuts will be served compliments of Lancaster Farm Credit.
