

Farm Women Societies

Lancaster Society 1

Society of Farm Women #1 recently met at the home of Hazel Tomb with Rachael Bollinger acting as co-hostess. Nadine Steinmetz, director of Ephrata Cloisters, showed a film, "All About Nettie Landis". Roll call was answered by members describing their favorite antique. Plans were made to go to the Allenberry Playhouse on July 9. The next meeting will be a covered-dish luncheon at the Farm & Home Center. Members will entertain county officers and Society #35.

Lancaster Society 5

Farm Women Society #5 met on February 27 at the Country Table Restaurant. President Eileen Bruckhart conducted the business meeting. Roll call was answered by 20 members. Delegates to the State Convention, Peg Sensenig and Sandra Yocum, gave their reports. Bylaws were reviewed by the members. The next meeting will be at Enchs Restaurant in Manheim. Hostesses will be Ruth Long and Florence Herdwig.

Lancaster Society 8

Members of Society #8 met at Patsy Warfel's home on February 20. Gladys Ney gave a detailed report of the State Convention to the 20 members present and to the two attending guests. Hostesses were Patsy Warfel, Anna Keener, Pauline Miller, and Sylvia Warfel.

Lancaster Society 26

Society of Farm Women #26 met on February 27 at the Country Table for a Valentine dinner with their husbands. Entertainment for the night was provided by the Bob Kettering family. A short business meeting followed.

Lancaster Society 34

Society #34 members met recently at the Dutch Apple Theater. Eight members plus husbands and friends enjoyed the evening's festivities. The next meeting is set for March 21 at Earl and Ruth Ranken's home. Sue Rutt will be hostess with Carol Groff acting as co-hostess. Orders for the sub sale are to be turned in. Motto for the month is "There's something to love in every day."

Perry County Crowns Princess

NEW BLOOMFIELD — Angie Kling, the 19 year old daughter of V. Art and Sandy Kling, was crowned Perry County's 1988 Dairy Princess on February 19.

John Harris, the Perry County Extension Agent, served as emcee for the coronation. Angie entertained the audience with her milk promotional skit "A trip to Timbuctu". Following the country music entertaining duo of Chuck McGarvey and Ellis Kuhn, the 1986-87 Perry County Dairy Princess gave her farewell speech. Fran Palm was Perry County Proud as spoke of fond memories from her reign.

Angie is a junior attending West Perry Senior High School where she is active in marching, concert, and jazz band, field hockey, yearbook, drama club, school play, and varsity club.

Aside from Angie's hectic school calendar, she finds time to help her mother with the family business paper work and occasionally helps her father care for the calves.

After high school Angie plans to attend college to pursue a nursing degree.

Co-chairpersons for the dairy princess committee are Beth Anne Rice and Patti McLaughlin.

The 1986-87 Perry County Princess, Fran Palm, crowns her successor, Angie Kling.

Berks Society 3

The Society of Farm Women #3 held its February meeting at Dora Pollock's home in Boyertown. Donations were given to the American Heart Association and the March of Dimes. Plans for attending the annual Spring Rally in Altoona were discussed. Mary Bartholomew, president, led the group in exercises and distributed literature from the American Heart Association.

The next meeting will be on reflexology at Sonya Moyer's home in Boyertown. Members are asked to wear green and bring something green in a paper bag to exchange.

Angie Kling begins her reign as Perry County Dairy Princess
