

THE BEST NEW TRACTORS ARE THE BEST OLD TRACTORS

AD7

- How much—or how little—do you get back at trade-in time? 105- to 190-horsepower John Deere tractors return a considerably higher share of their original price than other makes.
- These aren't our figures, either. They're published by the National Farm and Power Equipment Dealers Association. And we'll be more than happy to show them to you. . .

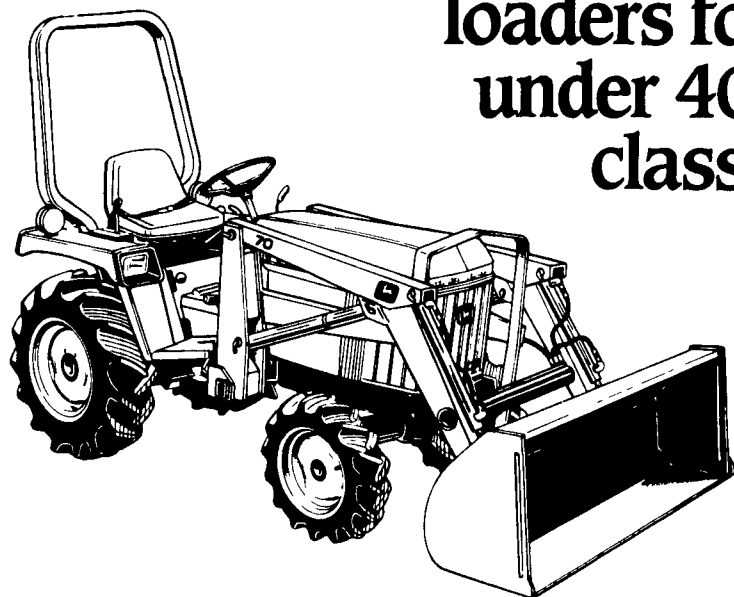

- Stop in and look the figures over. And look over the tractors, too. Five models in the prime power range—105, 120, 140, 165 and 190 horsepower. With or without mechanical front wheel drive. 15-speed Power Shift or 16-speed Quad-Range™ transmission. Climb aboard and see what's new.
