Pennsylvania Beef Council, Inc. EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Board of Directors seeks a professional staff person who is dedicated to improvement of the livestock, beef, and veal industries to serve as chief executive officer of the Pennsylvania Beef Council and is responsible for managing the programs and affairs of the Council.

Qualifications:

The successful candidate should have a broad knowledge of the livestock industry; some knowledge of food industry promotion and merchandising, consumer education and promotion, and trade association operations, management, budget preparation, etc. Previous experience with a trade association is desirable. The candidate should have an extensive knowledge of the Beef Promotion and Research Act as it applies to state beef councils. Superior skills in written and verbal communication are essential.

The candidate must be a team player who is able to motivate and work well with others and functions as an independent professional.

Combined training and experience must be equivalent to not less than a B.S. degree.

Responsibilities:

Examples of responsibilities: administer Council office operations and staff, administer beef check-off collection and distribution, define beef and veal promotion program goals, prepare marketing plans, coordinate state plan with national programs, participate in certain promotional events, represent PBC at state and national meetings, communicate with livestock producers and others and perform usual functions required of an association office.

Salary: Commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Qualified persons interested in this challenging position should send a resume of education, experience, and salary requirements, together with names and phone numbers of references to:
