New York & Philadelphia Eggs

Frozen Report

Philadelphia, Pa.

Tuesday, November 22, 1988

The market tone was barely steady to weak. Trading activity was light and unaggressive. Breakers were selective as offerings of raw materials exceeded their lighter holiday needs. Floor stocks were sufficient and easily handled buyer inquiry.

NE Chicken Parts

Tuesday, November 22, 1988

Buying interest was light for immediate delivery but showing spot improvement for late week needs. Cutlets were fully adequate at 2.15 to 2.20. Supplies of whole breasts were adequate and in better balance and buyers noted difficulty in filling needs at lower price levels. Supplies of legs and particularly leg quarters were moving into better balance at current levels. Wings were in tightest supply and buyers were fairly aggressive at the higher price levels.

National Egg Market

Wednesday, November 23, 1988

NATIONAL EGG MARKET - AT A GLANCE:

The market tone was unsettled from area to area. Distributive movement was fair to good. A late surge in cartoned egg demand helped move supplies in several areas but some dealers were still cautious and wanted to work with only minimal floor stocks following the holiday. Most breakers had adequate supplies and were out of the market till next week.
