Bred-Gilt Sale Grosses $64,000 Plus

HARRISBURG — Building and improving herds was on everyone's minds at the traditional two-day Farm Show bred-gilt sale. For Merlin Waltz Farms of Williamsport, improvement came at the cost of $1,175 for the grand champion Duroc.

The February gilt was consigned by Stoney Ridge Farm owned by the Tom Frantz family. A total of 33 Durocs were sold bringing $11,210 or an average of $340 each.

More than $64,000 was spent in the small arena during the sale. An average price of $332 was paid for the 194 animals that crossed the auction block.

Just prior to the Yorkshire sale, Leon L. Arnold of Lebanon was presented with the Swine Breeders Award by Farm Show Commissioner Dennis L. Grumbine, also a Lebanon County hog producer. Arnold, who exhibited the grand champion Yorkshire, was recognized for his contribution to the hog industry. He was selected for the annual award by the organizers of the bred-gilt show and sale, who also sponsored the award.

Arnold received $675 for his champion, which was purchased by Cooper Charolai Farm of Maine. The 39 Yorkshires grossed $13,090.

A record high price of $650 was paid for the Poland China grand champion, which was consigned by James Hilty of Mount Pleasant. Rocky Acres Farm of New Tripoli bought Kings Doll. Another Poland China record was set when the average per gilt was tallied at $358. The 1988 record was $322.

The grand champion Berkshire, consigned by Dennis Grumbine of Myerstown in Lebanon County was purchased by Todd Bennecoff of Kutztown for $525. The 10 animals in the Berkshire show brought $2,490.

Eugene Smith of Mount Bethel spent $410 for the grand champion Chester White, which was consigned by James T. Parlett and Sons of Airville. The Chester Whites grossed $5,560 or an average of $265.

John Mummert of Seven Valleys in York County consigned the grand champion Landrace gilt, a February hog. It was purchased by Dave Korns of Hydman for $425. A total of 23 Landrace gilts were sold for $6,765.

The grand champion Spotted Swine, consigned by James T. Parlett of York County, went for $560 to Brian Lake of Big Cove Tannery. The 21 Spotted Swine sold for $6,900.

The sale provides hog breeders with an excellent opportunity to purchase champion animals with which to build and improve their herds. The champions had all been judged during Saturday's competition.
