

Philadelphia Flower Show

Quilts and flowers found their match at the show. Competition in "Patches of Color" required a flower arrangement complementing a quilt.

First prize in this category went to three Lancaster countians Sharon Bitner, Lisa Salcione and Debbie Sielski who created a quilt expressing the show's theme "Kaleidoscope—The Wonderful World of Color."

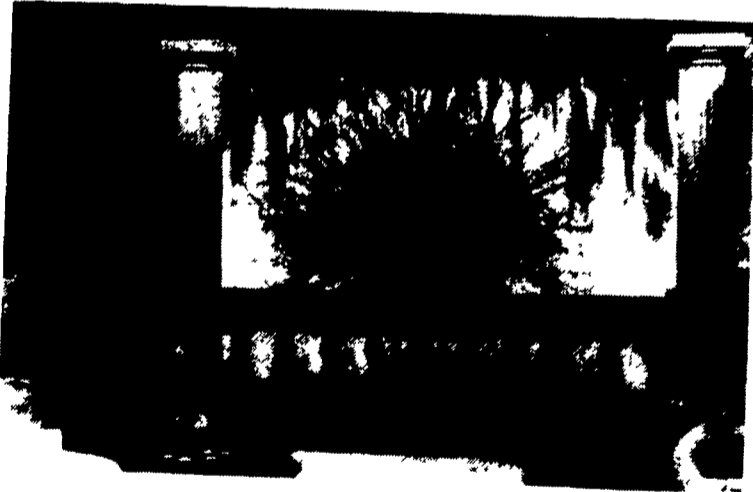

Custom-made for The Garden

Workers, a Main Line chapter of the Garden Club of America, the quilt featured a traditional barn raising pattern. The seven foot square mounted on a frame boasted a melange of colors. The quilt's center squares are soft tones of pink, gray, yellow and ivory radiating into more vivid shades of hot pink, red, orange and turquoise. A border combines the darker hues of purple, red, brown and black.

Arrangements interpreting a song title with the name of a color in it inspired floral designs with titles such as "Over the Rainbow," "Paint It Black," "Red Sails in the Sunset," "Blue Moon," "Nights in White Satin" and "Tangerine" which took first place.

Horticultural supplies, landscape materials, flowers, and a myriad of related items were available for interested buyers. But the most intriguing part for most viewers was the landscape displays of which photos cannot do justice.
