Lebanon County 4-H Livestock Members Review 1988

PRESCOTT (Lebanon) — Lebanon County 4-H'ers celebrated their achievements of the past year with families and friends at a recognition banquet last week.

The 4-H'ers honored fellow members for their accomplishments and expressed their gratitude to the companies and individuals that supported the clubs.

Secretary of Agriculture Boyd E. Wolff added his congratulations and discussed the importance of farmland preservation, tax reform, and the Animal Health Task Force to farmers.

The beef, sheep, and swine clubs gave special recognition to two individuals and two companies for their extra support to the clubs.

Harry H. Bachman was given a gift certificate for donating his time and skills to the club's auctions. Judy Atkins received both a plaque and a gift certificate for serving as the leaders' secretary and doing most of the paperwork for club events.

The three clubs offered special honor to three members who they considered outstanding 4-H'ers.
