

Automatic Begins 15th Year In Sprayer Loan Program

PENDER, NE — In 1974, Automatic Equipment Mfg. Co. of Pender, Ne., in cooperation with university and government agencies, established a sprayer loan program. The purpose of this research program has been to evaluate Automatic Mist Sprayers' advantages and applications.

Field research has been an on-going commitment for Automatic. "We need to keep pace with the needs of today's farmer/stockman. The research reports have helped us in modification and adaptation of our sprayers for particular spray requirements in many areas of the country," according to Jay Hesse,

President of Automatic.

One result of the program has been the accumulation of many university and government test reports, letters and magazine articles endorsing the use of Automatic sprayers. Reports include cotton defoliation and insecticide application; insect and disease control in fruits and vegetables; brush, weed and insect control on pasture and range; livestock fly control; and pertinent information on spray droplet size, drift, and spray efficiency.

Automatic plans to continue the Sprayer Research Loan Program. As the needs of the growers change, Automatic will keep in step with these changes with ongoing research and evaluation of their sprayers.

"Back in 1972 I made two decisions that made my life a lot better. First, I married Nancy McGinnis. That same year she convinced me to put Fabral™ siding and roofing panels on our buildings. Even after all these years, Nancy and Fabral are still as good looking and as durable as ever!"

If you're looking for siding and roofing that will last, then you want Fabral. Behind its good looks is a carefully engineered system that gives remarkable durability and design flexibility.
