

Youngsters Parade 146 Head At Atlantic National Junior Show

NATIONAL ANGUS SHOW

D A Special FX captured the bred-and-owned grand champion bull title for Mark Moxley of West Friendship, Md., at the recent Atlantic National Junior Angus Show.

NATIONAL ANGUS SHOW

Ayrshire King Richard 2048, shown by Kim Sutphin of Leesburg, Va., captured the grand champion banner in the Registered Steer Show held during the Atlantic National Junior Angus Show.

NATIONAL ANGUS SHOW

J L C Primrose Personality 129 stood as the bred-and-owned junior champion female for Jennifer Calderazzo of York, Pa.

NATIONAL ANGUS SHOW

D A Dixie 4882 claimed the bred-and-owned spring calf and grand champion female banners for Mark Moxley.

ST. JOSEPH, MO — Young Angus exhibitors paraded some 146-head of cattle around the show-ring to vie for championship honors at the recent Atlantic National Junior Angus Show. The event was held at the state fairgrounds in Timonium, Maryland.

Mark Richardson of Milton, Indiana, served as judge and he placed divisions for bred-and-owned heifers, 'owned' heifers, bred-and-owned bulls, cow/calf pairs and registered steers.

Grand champion laurels in the bred-and-owned heifer division went to the spring calf winner, D A Dixie 4882. She was shown by Mark Moxley, West Friendship, Maryland. This heifer is a March 1988 daughter of R O R Rolls Royce. Anne Davis, Springfield, Kentucky, led out the reserve grand champion female in this division. Annie's Choice, a June 1988, Piper Wyandot P600 daughter, earlier won the summer calf champion ribbon.

Magnum Unique 2 stood as the 'owned' grand champion female for Ty Krebs, Gordon, Nebraska. She was calved May 1988 and was sired by S C R Lone Star 411. This heifer was also awarded the summer calf title in this division. Northcote Abbie won both the 'owned' spring calf and reserve grand champion female banners for Sarah Hill, Forest, Virginia. Her heifer is a January 1988 daughter of Cobble Pond Rookie.

Judge Richardson awarded the bred-and-owned grand champion bull rosette to D A Special F X. This April 1988, R O R Rolls Royce son was bred and exhibited by Mark Moxley. John Hausner, The Plains, Virginia, showed the bred-and-owned reserve grand champion bull. Byrnlley Lone Rider 7158 was calved July 1988 and was sired by Wrangler.

Jennifer Calderazzo, York, Pennsylvania, exhibited the bred-and-owned grand champion cow with an embryo calf. The cow is J L C Primrose Personality 129 and she had a February, Grubbs Mac Kenzie bull calf at her side.

Annes Miss Georgina 54 and her January heifer calf, sired by R&J Taurus 1186, claimed the bred-and-owned grand champion cow with a natural calf ribbon.

Kim Sutphin, Leesburg, Virginia, led Ayrshire King Richard 2048 to the champion spot in the steer show. Her entry is a March 1988 son of R O R Royalty 108T, and he weighed 1,200 pounds and had a weight per day of age of 2.69 pounds. Reserve grand champion steer honors went to an entry of John Hausner's. Byrnlley Big Mac was calved January 1988 and was sired by Pine Drive Big Sky. He tipped the scales at 1,332 pounds and had a weight per day of age of 2.74 pounds.

A showmanship contest for junior Angus members was held in conjunction with the show. An overall champion was selected from among the four championship divisions.

Russ Cronk, Lewisville, Indiana, was named the overall champion showman in the contest. He earlier captured the senior division title. Ashley Davis, Springfield, Kentucky, won the reserve senior ribbon.

In the intermediate division, Sandy Eisenhour, Wellsville, Pennsylvania, won first place honors and Bryson Michael, Mt. Solon, Virginia, was awarded the reserve champion ribbon. The junior showmanship champion (Turn to Page D4)

Jennifer Calderazzo of York, left, won championship honors while William Federspiel of Powhatan, Va., won reserve champion honors in the junior division of the showmanship contest.

The champion showman in the intermediate division of the showmanship contest held during the Atlantic National Junior Angus Show was Sandy Eisenhour of Wellsville, Pa. The reserve champion was Bryson Michael of Mt. Solon, Va.

David Bell, left, of Port Deposit and Rance Long of Sherwood won the Maryland Junior Angus Association senior showmanship contest. It was held in conjunction with the Atlantic National.

Heather Hough, left, of Lakeville, Ct., and Erin Krueger of Coatesville, Pa., were named champion and reserve champion, respectively, in the 9-to-11-year-old division of the showmanship contest.