in the lobby of the Maryland 4-H Center to honor Amy F. Leber of Laytonsville. Mrs. Leber has been resource development coordinator over the past 10 years for the Maryland 4-H Club Foundation. She notes with a grin that she originally took the job for a six-month assignment.

Organized in 1959, the Maryland 4-H Foundation conducts and coordinates fund-raising activities with grant proposals and a network of adult boosters. The foundation supports 4-H youth activities and programs throughout the state. It also underwrites college scholarships and award trips for outstanding or deserving 4-H members.
