

New Youth Ambassadors To Represent Pennsylvania

Jennifer Cummins of New Castle and Henry Seidel of Virglnville are the new youth ambassadors for the Pennsylvania State Grange.

HARRISBURG (Dauphin Co.) — Bright, young, enthusiastic, with an intense commitment to the Grange — this description is perfect for the new 1989-90 Youth Ambassadors. Jennifer Cummins and Henry Seidel are the new State Grange Youth Ambassadors chosen recently at State Youth Camp.

Jennifer Cummins is the daughter of Jane and Bill Cummins of New Castle, PA. She has been an active member of her Grange since the age of 15, and her involvement includes serving as Lady Assistant Steward of her Subordinate Grange — Big Beaver #1578 and acting on the Lawrence County Youth Committee. In the past she also represented Pennsylvania in the capacity of 1985-86 State Junior Grange Princess.

Jennifer is currently a sophomore at Indiana University of Pennsylvania, studying elementary education. There she is also a sister in AZD, a social sorority. Her job this summer reflects her interest in children as she is involved in the child care profession. Along with her activities in the Grange, school, and her job, Jennifer still has time for camping, swimming, and softball. In fact, for the third year in a row, her softball team has advanced to national competition.

Henry Seidel, the Male Ambassador is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seidel. Henry is an active and energetic Grange representative, also. He comes from Virglnville Grange #1832, where he has served as Gatekeeper and is presently a member of the Berks County Youth Committee. Team sports are also an interest of Henry's. He has played for several years on Grange volleyball and softball teams.

Henry is presently a senior at Penn State University, main campus, majoring in the field of Agricultural Engineering. AZ is also honored to have him as a brother in their professional agricultural honor fraternity.

Both Jennifer and Henry have similar goals for the upcoming year and the future of youth in the Grange. Each one would like to spread the word about what the Grange has to offer for youth and make the Grange a "group effort." Jennifer would "like to set an example for youth across the state and show them what fun Grange really is." Henry wants to "work with individuals in Grange who are really excited about the organization and help them spread the enthusiasm."
