landscaping. All sponsors receive a tax-deductible credit.

It was noted by Larry Redding, State FFA Advisor, that the Pennsylvania FFA teams won the Sweepstakes trophy for receiving the most points in contests at the Eastern States Regional Contest in Springfield, Mass.

Discussion was also held in regards to a joint FFA-Pa. Beef Council project to distribute "points of purchase" packets to retail supermarkets across the state and the possibility of working with the Pennsylvania Nurseryman's Association in conjunction with the "Global ReLeaf" project being launched on Arbor Day, and the planning of the FFA Foundation booth at Farm Show in January. This year's theme will salute the dairy industry and the Foundation will sell Hershey's chocolate "How Now" cows, pre-packaged in a special tin barn in order to raise money for the Foundation causes.

Those trustees in attendance were: Robert L. Badger, August Birchler, Samuel E. Curtis, Glenn Eberly, William Erikson, James M. Faust, Michael Firestine, Dennis Grumbine, Jack Hanes, David Harper, Samuel E. Hayes, Jr., Clifford Jones, Robert Kauffman, Jr., Stephen R. Kline, Bruce Lemmon, Barry Oswald, Donald Ranck, Larry Redding, Roger Rohrer, Samuel C. Sherk, Rebecca Sonnen, Richard Waybright, Glen Weber, Robert Weller, Tim Weller, Bill Williams, Lowell Wilson, Bill Wise, and George Wolff.

The next meeting will be held in the eastern region at the Philadelphia Flower Show, March 15th at 4:30 PM.

At FFA Foundation meeting are (l to r): Daniel Love, state FFA vice president, South Central region; John Hess, state FFA vice president, Eastern region; Richard Waybright, Mason Dixon Farms and Rebecca Sonnen, state FFA president.
