

The winning 1989 Beef Club Trio in the Lehigh County 4-H Club are, from left, Jason Grim, Stephen Wessner, Daniel Hartman.

Lehigh County winners with entries in swine competitions are, from left, Laura Lazarus, with her middleweight trophy; Sheri Lazarus, holding a reserve grand champion trophy; Mark Lazarus, with grand champion plaque; and Daniel Hartman, with lightweight champion trophy.

From left, Bruce Snyder the Lehigh County 4-H Swine Club member while Daniel Hartman holds the outstanding breeding project trophy for making the best...

Lehigh 4H Livestock Club Honors Members

BY VAL VANTASSEL
Lehigh Co. Correspondent
SCHNECKSVILLE (Lehigh Co.) — Approximately 300 people attended the 14th annual Lehigh Co. 4-H Livestock Clubs Awards Banquet held recently at the Schnecksville Fire Co. Members of the Swine, Beef and Sheep clubs were honored for their skills in the show ring, outstanding project books and willingness to help others.

Mark Lazarus was honored for showing the top market hog at the 4-H round-up. Sheri Lazarus had the reserve animal. The middle weight, champion was owned by Laura Lazarus. Daniel Hartman showed the top lightweight hog.

Tracey Lazarus had the outstanding market project book. The award for outstanding breeding project book went to Daniel Hartman. Bruce Snyder and Stephen Wessner were named the most helpful members.

A number of members were honored for their showmanship: senior showman, Mark Lazarus; reserve, Scott Lazarus; intermediate, Kurt Haas; reserve, Sheri Lazarus; junior showman, Lynn Lazarus Jr.; reserve, Timothy Eschbach; first year, Stephen Schaffer; reserve, Angela Kunkel.

Members exhibiting outstanding fitting skills were: senior, Mark Lazarus; reserve, Wendy Lazarus; intermediate, Kurt Haas; reserve, Laura Lazarus; junior, Jason Wisser; reserve, Lynn Lazarus, Jr.; first year, Jeremy Wisser; reserve, Angela Kunkel.

Also receiving plaques were the members of the third place pork bowl team including Travis Fink, Daniel Hartman, Wendy Lazarus and Stephen Wessner.

First year showman Crystal Wetzel had the champion steer at this year's round-up. Jason Grim's entry had the best rate of gain at 2.9 lbs. per day. Jason also had the outstanding project book.

Top fitters for the beef club were: first year, Crystal Wetzel; senior, Gavin Grim; intermediate fitter, Stephen Wessner; junior, Jason Grim and Shannon Wetzel.

In the showmanship division, the following members won awards: senior, Gavin Grim; intermediate Stephen Wessner; reserve intermediate, Daniel Hartman; junior, Shannon Wetzel; reserve, Jason Grim; first year, Jason Grim.

The Lehigh County Beef Club also had the top entry in the trio competition. Included in the trio were animals owned by Jason Grim, Daniel Hartman, and Stephen Wessner.

Lori Tyson, secretary of the sheep club, had a busy year. Not only did she exhibit the champion lamb at the round-up, but she was also named the top shepherd, the intermediate fitter and the reserve intermediate showman. Ben Lazarus had the top pair of sheep and Laura Lazarus showed the champion bred and owned sheep. The top showmen in their age

