

Cumberland 4-H Dairy Club Recognizes Members

HUNTSDALE (Cumberland Co.) — The 34th Cumberland County 4-H Dairy Club held its annual banquet recently at Penn Township Firehall and recognized outstanding 1989 members.

Michael Hensel, Newburg, past president of Blue Mountain 4-H Club received a plaque testifying to an outstanding 4-H achievement record. Hensel, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hensel, also gave the invocation during the banquet. His award was sponsored by Warren Johnson, an MSD Agvet representative.

The outstanding first year award went to Kendra Naugle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Naugle, of Carlisle. The award was sponsored by Easter Milk Producers.

Craig Walton, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Walton, also of Carlisle, received the Merle E. Miller Memorial Award. Walton was news reporter for the county club. He also had the champion Holstein during the county dairy roundup. He received the memorial award based on his accomplishments including work with 4-H project records, dairy bowl and judging activities and showing dairy animals.

Chris Young, of Newville was named 1989 Outstanding 4-H member and received an award sponsored by York Farm Credit.
