

Sheep On Display At Maryland Festival

WEST FRIENDSHIP, Md. — The English Longwool or Leicester breed of sheep will be one of the breeds of sheep to be on display at the Maryland Sheep and Wool Festival on May 5 and 6 at the Howard County Fairgrounds. The English Longwool has recently been imported into the United States by Colonial Williamsburg, which will bring the sheep to the festival. It is a large robust sheep with a heavy fleece that was used in 18th century England to improve other sheep breeds. The wool is coarse and used for rugs and upholstery fabric.

There will be at least 30 different breeds of sheep on display at the festival.

Admission is free. For further information, call Lynne Clary, (301) 290-6967.
