National Egg Market

May 2, 1990

The market tone was steady at best. Retail and distributive movement was sluggish and usually no better than fair. Promotional activity was limited but hoped to stimulate some additional buyer interest. Supplies were adequate to fully adequate. Breakers continued selective as offerings increased.

N.Y. & Phila. Frozen Eggs

May 1, 1990

Trade sentiment was unsettled. Sales were light to moderate with most traders closely watching for further market developments. Yolks continued in the weakest position and whites in the strongest. Most breakers worked full schedules with offerings of raw materials increasing. Floor stocks were in good balance for current needs.

Delmarva Broiler Fryer

May 2, 1990

Movement of ready-to-cook whole fryers was generally fair and about as expected. Supplies were in good balance with current needs. Less than trucklot asking prices were steady at 51-60 cents. Live supplies were adequate with average live weights in a full range. Today's processing schedules were heavy. The trade sentiment was steady. In the parts complex, supplies of breast items were in close balance to short of immediate needs, dark meat items and wings were adequate and clearing to regular commitments. Some buyer inquiries for leg quarters have gone unfilled.
