Northeast Broiler/Fryer Parts

May 30, 1990

Trucklot buying interest was light and spotty. Supplies of wings were in closest balance and clearances were generally good. Skinned boneless breasts were irregularly balanced but fully adequate overall. Whole breasts were fully adequate to ample and attracting increase-retail interest; however, the bulk of new sales were at lower levels. Legs and leg quarters were ample and discounting was commonplace to maintain buyer interest. thighs were at least adequate while drums were adequate.

Delmarva Broiler Fryer

May 30, 1990

Movement of ready to cook whole fryers was fair. Supplies were irregular and ranged adequate to ample with the extra product being offered at competitive prices and slow to clear. Less than trucklot asking prices were lower at 55-64 cents. Live supplies were adequate. Average live weights ranged desirable to heavy. Processing schedules were heavy. The trade sentiment was barely steady at best. In the parts complex, supplies of wings were in close balance, all other items were irregularly distributed and ranged adequate to ample.

National Egg Market

May 30, 1990

The market tone was usually fully steady to instances firm. Movement was moderate to good as pipelines were still being filled in most locations. Supplies were in close balance, especially on the heavier sizes. Additional offerings were irregularly available and in some instances difficult to locate. Breaker activity was usually on the light side as several were temporarily out of the market working existing inventories to maintain desired schedules.

New York And Philadelphia Frozen Egg Report

Friday, May 25, 1990

Prices were unchanged to higher. Traders were cautious as costs continued to rise and most adopted a wait and see position as they closely watched for further market developments. Several breakers chose to work abbreviated holiday schedules next week and were selective in any additional purchases of confidently held raw materials. Floor stocks were usually in good balance with current dealer needs.
