

Outstanding 4-H'er Named At Achievement Night

LANCASTER (Lancaster Co.) — Every year 4-H'ers look forward to Achievement Night, which was held this year at the Farm and Home Center on August 17. That's the time they receive recognition for their project work, but the most important honor is the student who is chosen as the most outstanding 4-H'er of the year. Brian McLaughlin from Quarryville captured the title this year.

The fifteen-year-old worked hard not only this year but also for many years to achieve the honor. To qualify, he also needed to fill out lengthy 'blue forms' that chart his achievements throughout his membership in the program, appear before a panel of judges for an extensive interview, and give a speech.

Among the 80 members who received gold medals — only the best projects receive this honor — four junior and four senior honor roll members were chosen.

Junior winners included Eric Wenger, Paula Loeffler, Kandi Mullen, and Kim McLaughlin.

Senior winners included Eileen Holm, Karen Becker, Kim Kettering, and Sharon Harnish.

In talent show competition, Josh Sheetz placed first; Amy Osborne, second; and Kim McLaughlin,
