Nov. 29, 1990

Trucklot buying interest was light and unaggressive on all but wings which cleared well at higher trending prices. Breast items were in excess and competitively priced but still remained slow in clearing. Leg items were adequate and in fairly good balance, particularly leg quarters, which were in demand for retail promotional activity.

New York And Philadelphia Frozen Egg Report

Tuesday, November 27, 1990

The market tone was barely steady to weak under a nervous and unsettled trade sentiment. Trading was light and both buyers and sellers were cautious. Most plants operated desired schedules with a reluctance to build inventories still apparent. Floor stocks were usually sufficient to handle current needs.
