HAPPENINGS

Horsin' Around Ends Year

The Horsin' Around 4-H Club ended its year by preparing and serving a holiday banquet for their 47 family members and invited guests.

Served were fruit punch and snacks, turkey meatballs in a hot cranberry sauce, potatoes au gratin, peas, corn, mixed greens salad with fresh fruit, and hot angel biscuits. Mint and chocolate parfaits, with cookies and homemade candies were served as dessert. Working in pairs, each member prepared at least two different items and had responsibility for other activities as well.

In addition to members honoring their families, individual members were recognized with end-of-year awards. Jessica Hill received the Horsin' Around's Outstanding Member of the Year Award. Hill has been an active 4-H member for five years. She served on the Lancaster County Horse Bowl Team, gave a presentation on driving which earned her a blue ribbon at both county and regional competitions, had perfect attendance at meetings, received a blue ribbon for the Veterinary Science Project Book, and was an active participant at the 4-H Fair and in other club activities during 1990. Hill also belongs to other 4-H Clubs, including Boots and Saddles, Lancaster County Production Club, and the Lancaster Woolies. In addition, she belongs to the Penn Manor's FFA Club, track team, and International Thesbian Society.

Kelly Sullivan, Lititz, received recognition for highest scoring junior veterinary science book. The highest scoring senior veterinary science book belonged to Eileen Holm, Manheim. High Sponsorship honors went to Sharon and Lori Harnish, Lititz. The Sportsmanship Award was presented to Mike Kerdeman, Manheim. Juniors Melissa Meiskey and Kelly Sullivan, Lititz were recognized for their presentation on the Arabian Horse. Senior Eileen Holm was honored for her presentation on buying a used saddle, having earned blue and gold ribbons at county, regional, and state competitions. Holm represented Pennsylvania in national competition in Louisville, Ky. in November.

As individuals, Lori Harnish placed 12th and Mike Kerdeman third in state competition in horse judging. As a team, they placed 8th. Leah Harvery, Lancaster; Michelle Kerdeman, Manheim; Jessica Hill, Conestoga; and Team Captain Sharon Harnish comprised the Horse Bowl Team, which placed second in the state.

Ed and Lois Holm were selected as the Outstanding Parents of the Year. Also honored were the adult leaders, Rose Fellenbaum, Nancy Harnish, and Pat and Dave Hill. The Horsin' Around 4-H Club is designed as an additional opportunity to learn more in-depth information about horses, and is open to any Lancaster County youngster ages 8-19 who is interested in horses. From no-till to clean fields, John Deere drills it home

The John Deere 750 Drill is your true no-till drill. It adapts to handle no-till conditions with adjustable down-pressure for each disk opener. You can cut through the toughest sod and residue, and still get excellent seeding accuracy. And each disk opener has a depth gauge wheel for outstanding control of seed placement, even in dips and rolling fields. So just imagine how well it drills in less-demanding fields. See us today.

The John Deere 450 End-Wheel Drill gives you more of everything you liked about the 8000 Series. The 450 features more penetrating force for drilling in minimum-till conditions, more capacity for more efficient planting and left-side adjustments for easier operation. Set it up to fit the fields you farm.
