

Gov. Casey Proclaims Grange Week

HARRISBURG (Dauphin Co.) — More than 350,000 national Grange members will celebrate Grange Week April 21-27. In recognition of this event and the Pennsylvania State Grange, Gov. Robert P. Casey has proclaimed the week of April 21-27 Pennsylvania Grange Week.

"Pennsylvania's agricultural tradition has stretched back over 300 years," Gov. Casey said. "Even today, in our post-industrial era, Pennsylvania has the largest rural population of any state in the nation and agriculture remains our commonwealth's number one industry.

"For nearly 120 years, the Pennsylvania State Grange has been dedicated to preserving our agricultural and rural heritage," he said.

Gov. Casey recognized the grange's role as an organized voice for rural families seeking equality in the legislative process. The 505 Granges throughout Pennsylvania act as centers for rural and agricultural interests, Gov. Casey said.

"I urge all citizens to recognize the many achievements and contributions to our Commonwealth made by the Pennsylvania State Grange and its members," Gov. Casey said.

The Pennsylvania State Grange will officially celebrate Grange Week on Monday, April 22, at the Holiday Inn, Grantville. The day will be filled with workshops and speakers on topics such as wetland regulations, dairy issues, and integrated pest management. Workshops will be followed by a social hour at 5 p.m. and dinner at 6 p.m. Tickets are $11 and can be purchased by contacting the Pennsylvania State Grange Office at (717) 234-5001.
