

N.E. Chicken Parts
May 8, 1991

Trucklot buying interest was active, particularly on leg quarters and boneless skinless breast. Breast items were generally adequate; however, trading prices were trending higher. Leg items tightened as a good to very good call for leg quarters developed. Wings remained in heaviest supply and spot trading was noted at discounts to normal trade practices to stimulate demand. GIBLETS were irregularly available.

National Egg Market
May 8, 1991

Prices trended lower on mediums in New England and in the Midwest, unchanged on the balance. The market tone was steady to weak on mediums, and generally steady for the large sizes. Demand was mixed, mostly moderate and best where retail specials were a factor. Inter-dealer trading of graded eggs increased. Supplies were adequate to fully adequate, and occasionally ample on mediums. Breakers received adequate to light offerings of heavy breaking stock, and many purchased the more available light weight eggs. Live hen markets continued about steady.

Eastern PA & NJ Poultry
May 8, 1991

Prices were about unchanged on light type fowl and too few sales to report on heavy hens. Demand fair on lights but buyers are showing a slightly better interest for heavy hens. Offerings are about adequate to adequate for next week's slaughter needs. Undertone generally steady.
