York Co. Eco-Meet Winners

YORK (York Co.) — Seventeen teams of third and fourth grade students across the county spend a sunsplashed spring day at the Izaak Walton League Grounds near Dallastown recently to showcase their skills and knowledge of the environment competing in the Second Annual York County Eco-meet.

The Eco-meet is an environmental learning experience that culminated in the one day event. Teams of six students were tested in the areas of forestry, wildlife, current events (recycling), and an environmental scavenger hunt.

All participants walked away with a seedling, T-shirt, poster, conservation booklets, and a new-found appreciation for our natural environment. The top six teams received ribbons and cash awards for their environmental libraries. Dillsburg Elementary, the overall team winner, also won the privilege of flying the Eco-Meet flag for the next year.

Schools participating were Leader Heights, Loganville-Springfld, Ore Valley, Central, Clearview, Wellsville, Fawn Area, Stewartstown, Newberrytown, York Twp., Pleasant View, Dallastown, Fishing Creek, Leib Elem., Delta, Fairview, and Dillsburg.
