National Egg Market

June 5, 1991

Prices were lower on mediums and smalls in the Midwest and New England, unchanged on the balance. The market tone was steady on the large sizes, steady to weak on the small sizes. Demand was mixed across the full range, and was best where featured, mostly moderate overall. Supplies of jumbo, extra-large and heavy nest runs were short to adequate, and generally more available. Large supplies were adequate, and the smaller sizes were adequate to long. Breakers selectively purchased shell eggs at unchanged to lower prices. Live hen markets were barely steady to weak; demand remained light for the ample supplies.

N.E. Chicken Parts

Trucklot buying interest was light and unaggressive. Boneless skinless breasts remained in fairly good balance for an irregular call. Whole breasts continued to increase in availability and supplies were generally adequate at current higher price levels. Legs, leg quarters and thighs were fully adequate to ample and best interest centered on leg quarters for retail activity. Drums were about adequate and in closest balance. Wings ranged balanced to available depending on shipper but in excess overall.
