

HAPPENINGS

Boots & Saddles 4-H

The June meeting of the Boots & Saddles 4-H Club was called to order by President Eileen Holm, and the pledges were given by Barry Gochnauer and Daniel Talbot.

Missy Overbaugh gave the secretary report, and the treasurer's report was given by Becky Preiss.

Under old business, the members were pleased to hear that the club won the "Monogrammed Cooler," given by F. & M. Brown & Sons, for the most members of a club participating in 4-H Days on June 1.

New business held many important upcoming dates: July 6 is the County Fun Show at the Lower Hopewell Horse Center, Lititz. July 9 is County Demonstration Day at the Farm & Home Center, Lancaster. Most important July 20, County Roundup, at the Lower Hopewell Horse Center, Lititz. This is the first step to making it to the state horse show in October.

Cumberland County 4-H Baby Beef Club

The Cumberland County 4-H Baby Beef Club held their regular meeting recently at the home of Heather and Justin Fuls in Shippensburg.

Members were told about different upcoming shows and fairs, and were also given entry forms.

After the meeting there was a fitting and showmanship demonstration given by Donnie Sheiss, a former Franklin County 4-H member. Sheiss showed the members how to show a steer and also how to clip and fit a steer to make him look the best for show.

The next meeting will be a club picnic, which will be held at the West Pennsboro Fire Hall in Plainfield on July 14.

Condoquinet 4-H Sheep Club

The Condoquinet 4-H Sheep Club met recently at the Plainfield Fire Hall.

Members were given papers for the Shippensburg Fair.

The club watched two movies: "Fiber to Fabric," which showed how wool is washed and clothing is made from wool. The other movie was called "Farm to Fabric," showed how the wool is shorn.

The Spring Preview Show was held June 1, 1991 at the Shippensburg Fairgrounds. Members weighed their lambs in at the show or at Weibly's Farm Market.

Lycoming Co. 4-H Presentation Night

On Thursday, June 13, the annual 4-H Presentation Night was held at Leader North in Williamsport.

4-H members who participated included Melanie Eck, RR4, Nisbet; Erin Boring, RR 3 Williamsport; Matthew Dunkleberger, RR 5, Williamsport; Marc and Mick Stine, RR 1, Trout Run; Leo and Christie DeMorat, RR1 Trout Run; Bill Klees, RR 3, Montoursville; and Angela Lovell, RR 2, Linden.

Topic of speeches included Pattern Me Pretty, Piece Together a Pizza, Road Rash Remedies, and the Rules and Safety of Air Pistol. Judges for the event were Lois Campbell, a Liberty High School teacher and Bill Hague of the Greater Williamsport Toastmasters.

South Mountain 4-H Club

The South Mountain 4-H Club held its monthly meeting recently at the Fontana Community Building.

A presentation was given by Chad Forst, Michael Robertson, Jason Flowers, Isaac Ebersole, and Tom Frey on model rockets. They showed us what you need to make a rocket, how to launch a rocket, and the many different kind of rockets there are.

Also a demonstration on stamps was given. Michelle Struphar, Erin Frey, Isaac Ebersole, Jessie Wanger and Tom Frey told us how to remove a stamp, place it in your book and the many different places that you can collect stamps.

Kelly Helpers 4-H

On May 20, the Kelly Helpers 4-H Club held their monthly meeting. The meeting started at 7 p.m.

Under old business, the club discussed the cookie sale and under new business discussed the teen council picnic and set a date to visit the capitol in Harrisburg.

After that we judged projects and held committee meetings.

Cumberland County 4-H Goat Club

The Cumberland County 4-H Goat Club met on June 5, 1991 at 7 p.m. at the home of Justin and Derrick Carpenter.

There were 11 members present. Entry blanks were given to each member for the upcoming Shippensburg and Carlisle fairs.

A talk was given by Robert Leib on "Fitting a Meat Goat." Red Allen reminded members to get their buyer's letters in the mail for the meat goat sale at Shippensburg Fair.

Demonstrations were also given by Derrick Carpenter on "Record Keeping on the Computer" and Justin Carpenter on "Tattooing."

The next meeting will be held at Billy Leib's on Sunday, July 7 at 4 p.m. This will be a covered dish picnic.

York Co. 4-H Holds Meats Judging Contest

The York County 4-H Livestock clubs recently held their annual 4-H meats judging and identification contest on June 19 at Godfrey Bros. Meats near Loganville. The contest was attended by 4-H members from Adams, Lancaster, and York counties, competing for top honors.

The junior division of the contest was dominated by Cindy Dehoff of Glen Rock. Cindy placed first in the meats identification portion of the contest and also collected the High Junior Individual Overall plaque during the contest. Other juniors placing in the meat identification were Mark Wessel, Adams County, who placed second and Buffy Dehoff, Glenn Rock, who placed third.

In the overall junior competition, Amy Bollinger followed Cindy Dehoff in second, while Mark Wessel was third.

In the senior division of competition, Cindy Dehoff's older sister Lisa dominated the division by placing first in the meat identification, oral reasons, and by receiving the high senior overall honors.

The other 4-H'ers placing in the top five in meat identification were Matt Sellers from Thomasville in second and Jason Stein of Wrightsville in third.

In the oral reasons competition, Matt Sellers placed second, Barb Mummert of Seven Valleys placed third, Jason Stein placed fourth, and Tracy Bollinger of Lancaster County picked up fifth place. The overall contest placings saw Matt Sellers in second and Jason Stein in third.

Other seniors competing and doing well in the contest were Tim Craig and Angie Erb from Lancaster County and also Tracy Lobaugh, Megan Wessel, and Arlyn Meyers, all from Adams County.

Adams Co.
