Lancaster 4-H Day Camp

The 4-H program serves more than 4,000 youth in Lancaster County throughout the year. The traditional program has long been recognized for its excellence with rural youth but we are equally as competent in the urban sector.

From May until August, the Lancaster County 4-H program will be providing nutrition, citizenship, and self-esteem building programs to Lancaster City youth between the ages of 8 and 12.

The programs will be built around the 4-H foods and nutrition curriculum. This curriculum emphasizes proper nutrition for youth, preparing healthy and good tasting snacks, and food handling and safety procedures.

By combining time and talents with the YWCA, Girls Club/Boys Club, Girl Scouts, City Housing Programs, and the Salvation Army, we will be able to make this program available to approximately 300 youth, which includes every elementary school in the School District of Lancaster.

As part the Lancaster 4-H citizenship and self-esteem building curriculum, there will be a day camp on Thursday, July 18, 1991 at Williamson Pavilion in Lancaster County Park from 10:30 a.m. to 12 noon. This activity is the culmination of our summer program.

Lycoming Dairy Team In 3d

The Lycoming County 4-H Junior Dairy Judging Team placed third in the Penn State dairy judging contest held recently at Penn State.

Kate Jarrett of RR 2, Montgomery, placed 10th in the overall contest.

Other team members were Melissa Daly, RR 1, Muncy; Shane Kitzmiller, RR 1, Unityville; and Jeremy Stackhouse, RR 1, Muncy.

Senior 4-H Dairy Judges were Shannon Peterman, RR 1, Muncy, placing 25th and Adam Fraley, RR 4, Muncy.

Coaches were Janet Stackhouse, RR 1, Muncy and Nancy Jarrett, RR 2, Montgomery.

Gloucester County 4-H'ers
Gloucester County was well represented at the annual New Jersey 4-H Public Presentation Day at Rutgers University, June 8, said Judith S. Baillere, county 4-H agent.

A total of three local 4-H'ers took part in the event, competing in the animal health and care and small animal categories. They all achieved ratings of "excellent" in the county competition held March 3, 1991. The 4-H'ers who competed were Kim Cianciola of Westville, Sherri Lafferty of Sicklerville, and Deborah DeEugenio of Glassboro.

Some 150 4-H'ers from all over New Jersey participated.

Adams County 4-H Members At Camp

There is nothing like the fresh air and outdoors! This is what 51 Adams County 4-H members learned at overnight 4-H Camp.

Camp was held at Camp Eder near Fairfield on Tuesday, June 11 through Friday, June 14 with 4-H members from Franklin, York, and Adams counties attending.

While at camp, 4-H members enjoyed sleeping in four-man covered wagons, swimming, and workshops ranging from hiking to air pistols to crafts. The camp was designed for 8 to 13-year-olds.

The camp was conducted by county extension staff and volunteers. 4-H teens served as group counselors and workshop counselors. Fourteen counselors were from Adams County. The first night of camp, the counselors presented a program to the campers, which involved skits and songs.

ADAMS COUNTY GIFT TO NATIONAL

Adams County 4-H senate members Beau Ramsburg, Gettysburg; Dan Ludwig, Gettysburg; Travis Green, Gettysburg; and Amy Miller, New Oxford, presented a $500 gift to National 4-H Council for an auditorium chair at the National 4-H Center in Washington, D.C.
