

YORK COUNTY 4-H FAIR SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

YORK (York Co.) — More than 1,000 projects will be on display during the annual York County 4-H Fair, July 24-27 at the York Fairgrounds.

"We have a variety of project areas, everything from basket-making to ceramics, entomology to foods, gardening to clothing, stenciling to woodworking, and much more," says Jodi Myers, York 4-H extension program assistant.

Project displays will fill the fairground's spacious Grandstand building, while a host of educational and fun events are planned for both 4-H'ers and fair visitors.

General public activities kick-off at 10 a.m. Thursday, July 25, with the 4-H dairy round-up in the livestock arena of the fair's cattle housing barns. Tractor driving contests get underway at 1 p.m.

Features on Friday, July 26, include the York County Holstein open class show at 10 a.m. and 4-H Olympics, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Saturday, July 27, is packed with events, beginning with lamb and beef shows, and rabbit judging, all beginning at 9 a.m. A pet parade at 11 a.m. is followed by demonstrations of seeing eye puppies, horse club and fashion show, all at noon. Shooting sports, rocketry and a bicycle rodeo get underway at 2 p.m.

The ever-popular petting zoo will be open Friday afternoon and Saturday, with a 50-cent entrance fee. All other 4-H Fair activities are free of charge and open to the general public.
