

Susquehanna Co. Holds Dairy Achievement Night

MONTROSE (Susquehanna Co.) — Susquehanna County 4-H dairy members recently completed their 1991 project year with their first annual 4-H Dairy Achievement Night held recently at the Montrose Presbyterian Church. More than 130 members, parents, leaders and sponsors were present for the program, which was designed to give special recognition to all 4-H dairy members who have strived "to make the best better."

Emcee for the evening's program was Gene Hubbard, leader from the DES Dairy Club. Jeremiah Fearnley and Elizabeth Semem were recognized as the members obtaining the most sponsors and received an award for their great effort.

Awards were then presented to all of the winners from the county dairy roundup.
