and was a Western Pennsylvania Leadership Conference delegate. Her future plans call for studies at the community college to become a teacher.

Troy Bliley

Troy Bliley is the 18-year-old son of Richard and Virginia Bliley, Waterford. He has had projects in beef finishing, swine finishing, poultry, and home garden. In his local chapter he was the sentinel and is the current vice president. He has won county and local trophies for his efforts.

Holly Blatt

Four-year FFA'er Holly Blatt has worked on a variety of FFA projects, including market hogs and on a co-op program at the local Agway Farm and Home Store. The daughter of Jay and Janet Blatt, Annville, Lebanon Co., Holly has served on various Northern Lebanon FFA committees, including banquet, scrapbook, and fundraiser. She participated in livestock judging, parliamentary procedure contests, and was a chapter delegate at the state FFA convention. She served as chapter secretary and president, and has received the Greenhand, Chapter, and County degrees. Holly also received the Star Farmer Award and placed fourth in the agricultural salesmanship contest at the State FFA Convention. Future plans include work on her brother's hog farm.

Cori Bomgardner

Dairy heifer and herd projects form the core of much of Cori Bomgardner's FFA activities during the past four years. This Northern Lebanon FFA'er also has garnered work experience in professional fitting and has served on the FFA's farm safety and banquet committees. The Ono, Lebanon County teen-ager has served as chapter and county FFA chaplain and has received the Greenhand, Chapter, and County degrees. Cori has also received first place in the state FFA judging contest and fifth place in the National FFA Judging Team (dairy cattle). Cori also received the 1991 Dairy Proficiency Award. Future plans include working on a combine crew for the summer and to work on father's farm.

Aaron Bower

The son of Rodger and Barbara Bower, Danville, Montour Co., Aaron Bower has served as Danville FFA chapter chaplain and treasurer. In addition, Aaron, a four-year FFA member, has been involved in various agribusiness and ag production projects. He has worked on the Crest View Farm and raised beef animals and managed several acres of corn. Aaron also served on various FFA committees, including the float and greenhouse committees. He has also attended many leadership conferences, and received the Chapter Scholarship Award. He plans to attend a technical school.

Paul Bowersox

Son of Robert and Carol Bowersox, Coburn, Centre Co., Paul Bowersox has served the FFA through various work experience projects. A four-year member of the Penns Valley FFA, Bowersox has received the Greenhand and Chapter honors. Future plans includes business school.

Nichol Bozliniski

Nichol Bozliniski has served on various committees at the Mohawk FFA, including citrus and float. FFA projects include dairy production (she received the silver last year), steer production award (silver), and was a member of the Pennsylvania Dairy Judging Team in 1990. She has judged dairy for three years at the Penn State FFA Week. The daughter of Phil and Cindy Bozliniski, Nichol has received the Greenhand and Chapter Farm honors and served as secretary and vice president of the chapter. She plans to attend Delaware Valley College to major in dairy science.

Chuck Brown

Four-year Waynesburg FFA member Chuck Brown has worked on various FFA projects, including farm products; dairy, land, and livestock judging; parliamentary procedure; and various creed, tree planting, banquet, lawn care, and farm product projects. Chuck received various honors, including Star Agribusiness, Chapter, and Greenhand degrees, and has served as secretary and sentinel of the chapter. Future plans include attending a technical school.

Susan Brown is the 17-year-old daughter of Richard and Shirley Brown, Millersville. Susan has had projects in market hogs and has worked in savings and investments, recreation and public relations. She won the youth encouragement award in 1991, the leadership award and was the executive vice president of her chapter. Her future plans call for studies in business at Millersville University.

James Burkholder

Much of James Burkholder's experience in FFA dairy-related projects came by serving as a hired hand on the Sandy Glen Dairy Farm since June of 1988. Since then, Burkholder, a four-year member of Brothersvalley FFA, has garnered experience by serving on the Scholarship Committee as chairman for two years and on the Degree Committee as chairman for the same length of time. The son of James and Patricia Burkholder, Meyersdale, Somerset Co., James has served as chapter sentinel and reporter. He has also received the Greenhand and Chapter degrees, and received various other honors, including the FFA Placement in Ag Production in 1990 and 1991, and the 1991 Agricultural Mechanics Award. Future plans include gaining experience in a two-year trade school.

John Burrell

John Burrell has served on an array of Spud Growers FFA projects related to dairy, including dairy improvement, dairy judging, and various tractor driving, land judging, and forestry projects. He served as treasurer of the Spud Growers FFA and as an alternative FFA officer. John plans to attend Clarion University to major in business management.
