

State FFA Awards Keystone

Jacy Clugston

Many activities have filled the life of four-year Manheim FFA member Jacy Clugston. Daughter of Ken and Phyllis Klugston, Manheim, Lancaster Co., Jacy has worked on a wide array of FFA projects, including various chapter, county, and state activities. Jacy has served her chapter as vice president and the county as president. Along the way, she garnered many honors, including Lancaster County Star Agribusinessperson, in addition to state recognition as first in the state creed speaking contest, the gold award in the state record book contest, and third place in state prepared public speaking contest. She has also served on the state and national chorus. Jacy has on-farm experience on the Balmer Brothers Dairy Farm and raises her own dairy animals.

Thomas Coffman, Jr.

A four-year member of Blue Juniata FFA, Thomas Coffman has worked on various farm projects, including corn, oats, wheat, and hay. Thomas has served as chapter sentinel for two years and serves as president. He has also served on the BOAC and budget and program of work committee. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coffman, Petersburg, Huntingdon Co., Thomas has participated on the parliamentary procedure team and has exhibited hay and grain at the local fair and at the Ag Progress Days. The recipient of the Star Chapter Farmer Award, Thomas's future plans include working on the family dairy farm.

James R. Cooley

This Apple City FFA'er has been involved in a variety of FFA projects the past four years, including public relations and financial committees. James, son of Richard F. and Regina A. Cooley, Aspers, Adams Co., served as an All-American and KILE tour guide and attended the Penn State FFA Freshman Conference and the 1990-1991 Cooperative Business Seminar for teens. James has received the Greenhand, Chapter, and County degrees, and has been honored with the Regional Star in the specialized agriculture area. He has also
