mer, and Star Farmer degrees. He plans a career in international ag business or dairy and animal science.

Shane C. Esbenshade

Four-year Grassland FFA Chapter member Shane Esbenshade has been involved in an array of FFA activities, including public relations, as chairman of the state and national activities, cooperation committee, and conduct of meetings. Shane served as chapter chaplain, and has been involved in other activities, including work for various companies. Shane, son of Robert and Elizabeth Esbenshade, New Holland, Lancaster Co., has been honored with the Proficiency Award, Diversified Crop Production Award, and participated in the county land judging contest, state land judging contest, and served on the FFA State Chorus. He plans to attend college or business school.

Corry Fenton

President of the Reynolds High School FFA Chapter, Corry Fenton has been an active member for four years, and was involved in the chapter's citrus sales. He has participated in local and state contests in land judging and poultry. Corry, son of Richard and Kathy Fenton, Greenville, Mercer Co., plans to attend a four-year nursing school for a BSN degree.

Mark A. Fernbaugh

Mark Fernbaugh, four-year member of the Bermudian Springs FFA, has served on the chapter's sandwich and banquet committees. He has participated in various fundraising committees, and attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., and at the state legislative and freshman leadership conferences. Mark, York Springs, Adams Co., has also participated at the Penn State FFA Activity Week, and has held the sentinel position in the chapter. He has garnered the Greenhand and Chapter degrees, and future plans are to work at a local florist.

Steven Findley

Steven Findley is the 18-year-old son of Kenneth and Katherine Findley, Holtwood. He has been a member of the Penn Manor FFA chapter for four years. His activities include sales and showing of dairy cattle, Ayrshires, at local fairs. His achievements have been demonstrated in dairy production and he wants to work at home on the family farm.

Rick Findley

Rick Findley is the 17-year-old son of Ken and Kathy Findley, Holtwood. Rick has been active in chapter sales and has been involved with the community fair where he won championships with his dairy entries and showmanship. He has been the chairman of the green house project and is a Red Rose star. He plans to join the family farming operation.

Edward Fischer

This Bucks County Tech FFA'er has participated in the home garden show and served the chapter as sentinel and student advisor. Edward, son of Thomasina Fischer, Levittown, Bucks Co., was honored with the Star Agribusinessman Award, and plans to continue to run his landscaping business and possibly attend a four-year college.
