son, representative of MSD Agvet. The award is based on a member's activities and involvement in 4-H dairy production.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Day, Matthew has been a standout in judging and showing.

Day also served to provide the opening welcome speech and to lead the Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge before the invocation by club member Michael Hensel prior to the banquet.

After the meal, Melanie Dietrich gave a talk about being a Cumberland County Dairy Princess and what it has meant to her.

During award presentations, Hensel, of Newburg, received the club's 4-H Outstanding Member award and the Merle E. Miller award for his efforts.

Sarah Day received the club's First Year Outstanding Member award.

Also during the banquet, the achievements of members in dairy competitions throughout the past year were recognized.

In addition, 15 leaders were recognized, many of whom have volunteered for more than 20 years.
