Seminar Focuses On Small Business

DOYLESTOWN (Bucks Co.) — Are you thinking about starting a small business, or expanding and improving your small business? If you answer yes, a seminar is designed for you.

This four-part seminar series, sponsored by Penn State extension, will focus on establishing, expanding or improving a small business, a part-time business, a home industry, or part-time farming operation. The seminar series will include analyzing your market, pricing, and advertising; financial records necessary for legal and successful business management; developing a business plan; taxes and tax records; sources of financial assistance, who qualifies, and how to secure loans; management techniques, success, employee relations, and decision making; and failure factors and problem solving strategies.

Penn State program faculty includes Russell Powell, business management; Fred Davis, resource management; Jeffrey Patton, marketing; Douglas Tharp, regional director, PENNTAP; Kay Hastings, county extension director; and a panel of small business persons.

The four-part program will be held on October 14, 21, 28, and November 4 at Meyers Restaurant, 501 North West End Blvd., (Rt. 309 North), Quakertown, from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. Preregistration of $30 is required by October 1. Make checks payable to Bucks County Cooperative Extension and mail to: Neshaminy Manor Center, Doylestown, PA 18901. For more information, call (215)345-3283.
