MANHEIM (Lancaster Co.) —

In his first year of showing, eight-year-old Ryan Donough had the surprise of his life at the Manheim Community Farm Show on Thursday night. His homebred crossbred topped 84 other sheep in breeding, market, and sale divisions to be named champion overall market lamb.

"I didn't think I had a better sheep than my brother," said Ryan whose 12-year-old brother Travis showed the champion heavy-weight sale lamb, which was also named reserve champion sale lamb.

The brothers are the sons of Ed and Larue Donough of Manheim.
