Northeast Chicken Parts

Wednesday, October 28, 1992
 Trucklot buying interest was very light for white meat items, fair to fairly good and improving for dark meat items. Supplies of boneless skinless breasts for retail needs were fully adequate with trucklot volumes reported at competitive prices. The trade sentiment was quite unsettled. Line run breasts were available with trading reported at lower prices. However, buyers continued very cautious and holding receipts to immediate needs only. Most dark meat items were in good balance with thighs in the tightest position, and leg quarters improved for next week needs. Yellow skin wings were ample to instances burdensome.
