

228 FFA'ers To Receive Keystone Degrees

Jay Hess

Jay Hess said he is the fourth son in his family to win the Keystone honor, and he said he plans to continue working on the hog farm with his father. Jay, 17-year-old son of Abe and Janie Hess, Conestoga, has been involved on various chapter committees, including principals leadership, taffy pull, fruit sale, wood cuttings, and farm show. Various projects include stream research quality and beef production. Jay has served as chapter treasurer, executive vice president, and president. Various awards garnered throughout the years include poultry production, beef production, a first in state poultry judging, a first in the area public speaking contest, and fourth in land judging in the state. He has also been honored with the Greenhand and Star Red Rose degrees.

Michael T. Hess

Manor FFA member Michael T. Hess, 18, son of Raymond H. Hess and Faye E. Hess, Pequea, has been involved in various projects, including raising calves, showing cows at a local fair, receiving a bronze in the dairy foods contest at Penn State, and he also attended the National Convention. Michael has held the offices of sentinel and advisor, and been honored with the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and Red Rose degrees. He wants to continue dairy farming with his father on the family's Holstein dairy farm.

Carrie Lynn Hetrick

Carrie Lynn Hetrick plans to attend Penn State to obtain a bachelor's in ag economics and to minor in international communications. While a member of Oley Valley

FFA, this 17-year-old Oley resident has been involved in the following SAEP activities: home garden, swine breeding, swine finishing, and dairy farm work experience. Carrie has also been a member of the Food for America, BOAC, and window exhibit committees, and participated in public speaking and livestock and dairy judging contests. The Berks County resident was awarded first place in the state interview contest last year. The Oley Valley FFA member has been chapter treasurer, vice president, and president, and was awarded the Greenhand and Star Chapter Farmer degrees.

Matthew H. Hicks

Matthew Hicks, four-year Northeast Bradford FFA member, plans to work on a farm. The Rome resident has participated in various contests, including small gas engine and public speaking. He has served as chapter vice president and county treasurer.

Philip D. High

Truck driver work in agriculture composes the plans for four-year Manor FFA member Philip D. High, son of Carl and Alice High, Lancaster. FFA projects that Philip has been involved with include hog showing at local fairs and farm show, steer, fruit sale, and taffy pull. The Manor FFA'er has participated in various contests, including state poultry judging (he placed second) and poultry and meats judging at the National Convention in Kansas City. He has also been honored with the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and Red Rose degrees.

Justin Hinkle

Justin Hinkle, 17-year-old son of Karl and Sandi Hinkle, Jonestown, has been involved with the Northern Lebanon FFA for three years. He has been a member of various committees, including banquet and farm show. Justin has been student advisor and served as treasurer, and obtained the Greenhand and Chapter degrees.

Jason Allen Heft

Grassland FFA member Jason Allen Heft, 19, Denver, has been a member of various chapter committees, including BOAC, earnings, savings, and investment, and community service. He has been scholarship committee chair and served as treasurer. Jason obtained the Red Rose degree and participated in various contests, including dairy foods and wildlife.

Michael Hofecker

A four-year college education and then off to the Air Force to become an officer are the plans of United FFA member Michael Hofecker. Various committee experience includes BOAC, Adopt-A-Stream, tree planting, and Food for America. Michael has served as chapter advisor, and participated in various contests, including demonstration, forestry, small engines, and Envirothon.

Dwight Barry Hoffman

To work on the home farm are the plans for four-year Oley Valley FFA member Dwight Hoffman, 17-year-old son of Barry and Karen Hoffman, Oley. Dwight has been a member of an array of committees, including window exhibit, BOAC, and Activities Week. He has obtained the Greenhand and Chapter degrees, and won first place for two enterprises regarding SAEP book.

Eric Hoffman

Eric Hoffman, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffman, Somerset, has served on various Somerset FFA committees, including scholarship, dairy ring, degrees,
