

Keystone Degrees

Jessica Wenger

Jessica Wenger attends college at Park College in Parkville, Mo. with a major in equine studies/pre-vet. The three-year Cumberland Valley FFA member, 18, daughter of Charles and Beverly Wenger, Carlisle, has been involved on the following committees: banquet, scrapbook, photography, citrus sale, pleasure horse project, and FFA Week. She served as chapter historian, and placed in several horse contests, including winning a silver in horse proficiency in 1991 and a gold the same year. Jessica has also participated in various state interview, record book, and interview contests.

John Wert

Committees in his Big Spring FFA chapter that John Wert has been involved with include safety, BOAC, citrus sale, Food for America, ag olympics, spring banquet, FFA Week, and others. The 18-year-old son of Nancy and John Wert, Carlisle, John has also participated in livestock judging and tractor driving contests. He served as sentinel and junior president. He received the Greenhand and Chapter degrees.

Mary Ann Williamson

While planning to own and operate her own stables, Mary Ann Williamson has been involved in a diversity of Somerset FFA projects, including finishing steers and market lambs. Mary, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Williamson, Friedens, has been active on community service, school improvement, banquet, and program of work committees. She serves as president of her chapter and secretary of the Somerset County FFA Association. She holds the Greenhand and Chapter degrees, and won a gold award in 1990 on her project book and a silver certificate in livestock judging at the 1992 FFA Activities Week.

Michael L. Woodruff

After school, Michael Woodruff hopes to help on the family farm. As a member of the Danville FFA for four years, he has served on the FFA Activities Week, fairs, and other committees. Michael, 17, son of Richard and Betty Woodruff, Danville, was sentinel and now serves as president of his chapter. He received the Star Greenhand and Star Chapter degrees.

Mike Yoder

Three-year Tri-Valley FFA member Mike Yoder has served on a variety of committees, including banquet, community fair, and others. The 18-year-old son of Michael and Dorothy Yoder, Ashland has participated in various contests, including land judging, dairy foods, livestock judging, and dairy herd. He has also compiled work experience on local dairy farms and intends to work in dairy farming. Mike has received the Dairy Proficiency Award, in addition to the Greenhand, Chapter, Star Greenhand, and County degrees. He served as chapter sentinel and student advisor and county treasurer.

Thomas L. Zartman, Jr.

Right now, according to Thomas L. Zartman Jr., four-year Cloister FFA member, he works for his father on the family dairy farm, which "someday I plan to take over," he said. Thomas, 17-year-old son of Thomas and Barbara Zartman, Ephrata, has worked on a variety of projects, including hogs and dairy. Of the livestock, "I show them at fairs and state levels," he said. Thomas served on several chapter committees and participated in FFA Week at Penn State. He received the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, and Red Rose degrees.

Kelli S. Zeigler

Big Spring FFA member Kelli S. Zeigler plans to become a state officer and then to go to college and major in animal science. Kelli, 17, daughter of Ronald and Lois Zeigler, Newville, has compiled a lot of experience in breeding sheep, market lambs, breeding goats, and market goats. She served as chairman of various committees, including leadership, public relations, community service, BOAC, and others. She participated in various contests, including state livestock judging, Made for Excellence, Fall Leadership Conference, All American and Keystone Livestock judging, and others. Kelli served as chapter vice president, area vice president, and was the recipient of the ag scholarship award and state sheep proficiency award, and ag sales and service proficiency award. She received the Greenhand, Chapter, and Star Chapter Farmer degrees, and served as chaplain and treasurer of Big Spring FFA.

Errik Zimmerman

Projects that Errik Zimmerman, four-year McGuffey FFA member, has been involved with include dairy calves, dairy herd, and on-farm experience on a dairy farm. Errik plans to enter the dairy business with his family, and to someday operate a dairy farm. Errik, West Alexander, has been involved on the following committees: Greenhand, citrus sale, recreation, and FFA Activities Week. Errik has shown at the Western Pa. Region FFA Dairy Show, picking up grand champion Guernsey in 1991 and reserve in 1992, and has also shown at the Pa. All American and Pa. Junior Dairy shows. The FFA'er has received the Greenhand, Chapter, and County degrees.

Michael Zimmerman

United FFA member Michael Zimmerman, 17, son of Robert and Sharon Zimmerman, Armagh, has been a member of various committees, including Adopt-A-Stream, tree planing, and Food for America. He has served as chapter vice president, and placed on various contests, including first in southwestern region wildlife, first in county wildlife contest, first on Envirothon, and first in the regional Envirothon in 1991. He plans to attend college.
