

Keystone Sets Meeting Dates

LANCASTER (Lancaster Co.) — For the convenience of its stockholders, Keystone Farm Credit, ACA will be holding three sectional meetings in its 15-county territory. Meeting schedule is: Tuesday, April 6 - Days Inn & Conference Center, Allentown; Wednesday, April 7 - Willow Valley Resort & Conference Center, Lancaster; and Thursday, April 8 - The Inn at Reading.

Stockholders are encouraged to attend the sectional meeting most convenient for them.

They will be voting for six director positions and 15 nominating committee members. Results of the elections will be available after noon on Monday, April 12, by calling a branch office. A press release will also be issued.

All meetings will begin with registration at 6 p.m. and dinner will start promptly at 7 p.m. In addition to the business session, entertainment is planned for each of the sectional meetings.

Beaver/Lawrence Holstein Qualified Herdbook Workshops Set

BEAVER/LAWRENCE COUNTIES—The Beaver/Lawrence Holstein Clubs will sponsor two work shops dealing with the qualified herdbook animals. The qualified herdbook program is new from the National Holstein Association and features the opportunity to have grade cattle registered under the QE prefix as long as four generations can be verified. A representative from the National Holstein Association will be on hand to answer questions regarding paper work and eligibility. All dairy farmers are invited to attend. Lunch will be on your own.

Both these meetings are scheduled for Wednesday, March 24. The first will start at 10 a.m. at the Grand Arbor Room, located on which could cause trouble." Nutrient management was also part of that.

The herd is also changed.

Up until moving into the freestall, the Hersheys had maintained a 100 percent registered Holstein

The second meeting will start at 8 p.m. at Eppinger's Restaurant, one mile north of Portersville on herd with about 75 percent of the cows tracing back to the original herd their late grandfather started on the farm.

Now the herd has gone to a majority of first calf heifers, and while production has dropped, it hasn't dropped as much as could be expected.

National Holstein Has Scholarship

BRATTLEBORO, Vt. — Applications are now being taken for the annual Robert H. Ruml Scholarship, an award of $3,000 to be given to a deserving college dairy graduate pursuing business administration studies for a master's degree.

The scholarship was begun in 1984 in the name of the former executive secretary of the Holstein Association.

Those who wish to contribute to the scholarship fund, can send checks directly to Steve Kerr, current executive secretary of the association.

Eligibility

Eligibility requirements include being under 30 years old, having an academic ranking in the upper third of graduates granted bachelor degrees, and have letters of recommendation from the dean of agricultural studies at the university being attended.

Along with the application form, those wishing to be considered must send a copy of their grade transcripts, a photo of themselves, the letter(s) of recommendation, and mail the application package to Steve Kerr, Holstein Association, Brattleboro, Vt., 05302-0808, by May 15.

The scholarship recipient is to be announced in June.
