Red Rose Leadership Contest
Lancaster County recently hosted the second annual Red Rose Leadership Conference at Lancaster Mennonite High School.

At the conference, attended by officers from throughout the county, FFA'ers learned the "importance of being involved as officers," said Jacy Clugston, state FFA secretary.

As part of the conference, FFA leaders spoke with national central region vice president John Kleiboecker and state officers, including President Mandy Hilbert, Vice President Ben Ehrhart, and Shelly Ogline, state FFA reporter.

The conference featured workshops that instructed the FFA members how to be more effective in chapter leadership. Included at the conference were workshops on the legislative process, college preparation, ag literacy, supervised ag experience/new project ideas, and fundraising ideas.
