LANCASTER (Lancaster Co.)
— Thirty 4-H'ers polished their speaking skills to participate in Lancaster 4-H Presentation Day recently.

It was the largest group ever according to 4-H extension agent Zoann Parker who credits the Toastmaster's work with 4-H members for the increase in entries.

Three senior division members who earned certificates with gold seals, the highest award, include Heather Oberholtzer from Saddle Cinches 4-H Club and Northwestern Dairy 4-H Club; Marilyn Holloway, Solanco Community Club; and Tanya Dawson, Solanco Community Club.

Heather's speech was about animal rights.

"It's a controversial topic, but everyone should be educated about it," she said.

The 15-year-old is the daughter of Clair and Lavern Oberholtzer of Elizabethtown. She is in 10th grade at Elizabethtown High School, where she participates in the FFA program. This is her fourth year in 4-H and the second year she participated in the county Presentation Day.

Another top winner Marilyn Holloway, who is also the outstanding 4-H'er, gave a humorous speech on "Marilyn's Survival Tips for High School."

"I like to talk and I like to write," said the 18-year-old, who graduated from high school and is off to Hood College this fall to major in communications.

Marilyn has participated in 4-H clubs for ten years. She recently returned from a Kansas 4-H Exchange trip, which she called

"the trip of my life."

Tanya Dawson also plans to major in communications. She spoke on "Failure, the Key to Success." She believes that failure often brings greater success and drew from her experiences in supporting this thesis.

The 16-year-old daughter of Wayne and Mae Dawson is a junior at Solanco High School. She plans to attend the University of North Carolina. Because she has a previous commitment to attend a leadership conference, Tanya will not be able to attend regional competition.

Blue ribbon winners in the senior division are Andrea Kreider, Kim McLaughlin, and Kandi Mullen.

Both gold and blue ribbon winners have the opportunity to compete in regional Presentation Day.

In addition to Marilyn and Heather, those attending 4-H state days at Penn State University are Sara Strickler, Joy Young, Andrea Kreider, Samara Shuster, Melissa Morrow, Kandi Mullen, Kim McLaughlin, Jessica Althouse, Tami Jones, Amanda Ebersole and Kirsten Kauffman.

4Hers-you've earned our support.....

Hey! Folks

If your cows are slipping and falling, it ain't my fault because I have a machine called a Scabblar that will fix that concrete so your cows won't keep slipping all the time.

We've got service all around this section of the country, and I have a fellow just jumping to do your job mighty fast.

And that ain't all, our prices are right reasonable, and if you're a tightwad we'll let you do the job yourself if you've got over 500 square feet. It can save you right smart a money.

So call me on my nickel at 800-692-0123. If I'm not by the phone, some real live person will take your number, and I'll try to get back to you real soon. Usually somebody is awake in this outfit, so you just call any time day or night. But, please mind the Lord, and don't call on Sunday.

Just one more thing. We fellows make our living doing this kind of work, and we've got children to feed and bills. That's our side of it, but you've got such things too. A lot of people tell us that this Scabbling saves a whole lot more than it costs. So go ahead and do it. It'll put shoes on everybody's feet.

Be looking to hear from you folks right soon.
