NORTHAMPTON

Keystone Farm

The well known Keystone Registered Holstein Farm has added Dairy of Distinction to its credits. Donald and Gerry Selpt, in partnership with sons Don and Doug, milk 90 cows that average 26,612m 988f 851p. The herd includes many homebred excellent cows. The tie stall barn has a liquid manure system under the barn. They have 110 head of young stock with the calves housed in an open front "motel." Located just south of Easton in Northampton County, the Century Farm has been in the family over 100 years.

SOMERSET

Will Farm

Robert and Tomalee Will take promotion of their dairy products seriously. They include exotic animals on their 325 acre Dairy of Distinction farm and invite farm tours to the farm. Through these tours, visitors are acquainted with the dairy and farming operation. The Wills have 118 head of registered and grade Holstins with a herd average of 17,000 lbs. Will Acres has been in the family for 80 years.
